Wath Victoria Primary School.	Neither satisfied nor dissatisfied	The education provided to my child does not always meet their needs. Too much is expected	Very satisfied		Somewhat reflective	There is too much focus on the use of Digi-Phone calls and a weekly letter could be a lot better. There have been instances where a Digi message has been put on 'the day before' a change to the activities / PE. This isn't great as there was not enough notice and I may not have actually seen this.	Sometimes	Concerns are always listen to, but not always acted on and the school says it will be logged as 'parent voice', instead of acknowledging or acting on concerns.
